

REINVENT HOW THE WORLD CLEANS

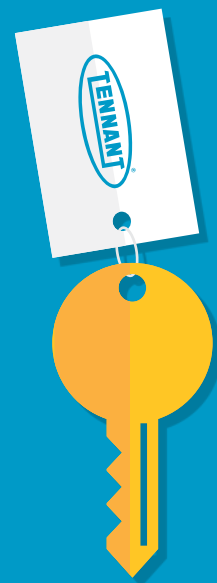

Tennant Rental Cleaning Machines

About Rental

Renting is proving essential to meet the machinery needs in many industrial sectors. Through rental, Tennant makes a wide range of modern equipment, along with services and training, available to its customers and enables them to improve their productivity and cost management.

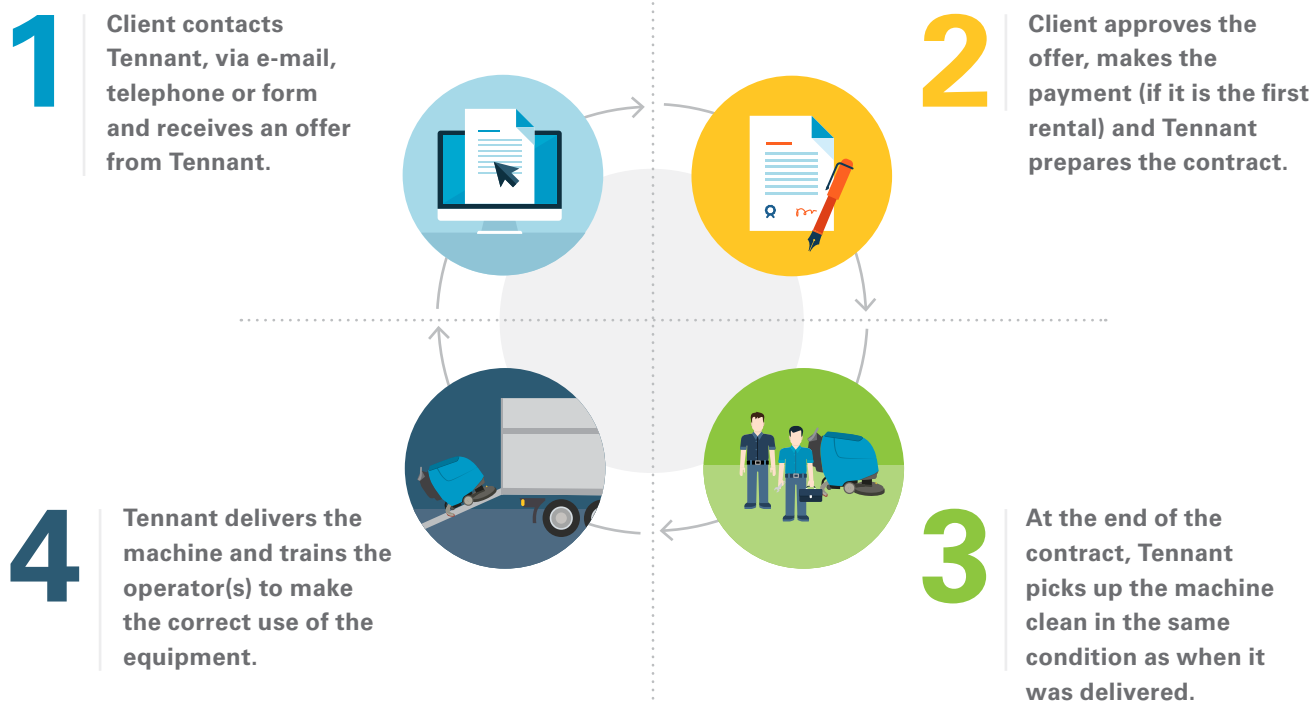

Renting your Tennant cleaning machines gives your business access to specialist, technologically advanced machinery when you need it while reducing the need for you to find long-term storage within your facility.

Additionally, renting your Tennant machines means you can focus on your business without the responsibility of managing a fleet of equipment and saves you money if you only require Cleaning machines short-term.

The Rental Cycle

The service offered by Tennant includes: transportation of equipment, coverage in case of damage and maintenance.

Why Chose Rental?

All The Rental Advantages

Cost saving

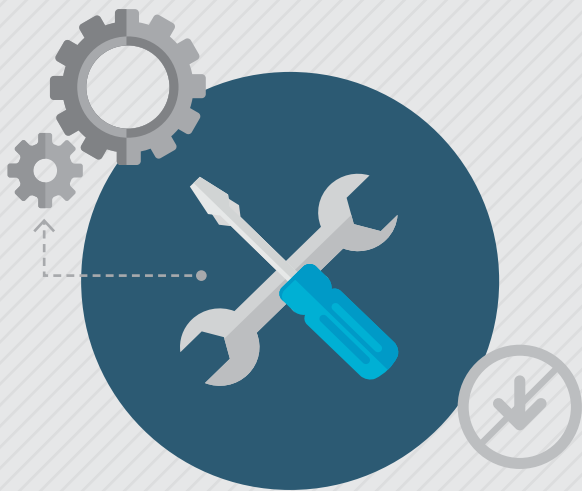

Renting is a deductible expense, it allows to conserve capital and maintain investment capacity.

It supports business growth and expansion allowing your business to take advantage of market opportunities without affecting the operations of your company.

Budget control and fixed fees

Our rental option represents a variable cost for your company, depending on the use of the machinery, and this has a direct impact on the results of your company and its financial strength.

Security Integrated maintenance service that guarantees constant equipment performance Tennant provides safe machines and is dedicated to its preventive maintenance, ensuring that your business continues to focus its energies solely on getting the job done; a worry-free solution and minimal downtime.

Maximum flexibility

Long and Short-term rental options from just one week, allowing you to choose the duration of the rental contract to meet your business requirements and peak cleaning times.

Immediate availability of machines.
Rental options starting from just one week.

Access to the latest technology and best efficiency.

Improve competitiveness
Renting allows your business to diversify its activities, exploring new sectors and places that may require different types and sizes of cleaning machines. In addition, it allows customers to be constantly updated, having the opportunity to obtain state-of-the-art Tennant equipment.

Client Proximity
Advice from Tennant – A Team of Professionals and Scheduled Technical Support.

Some more reasons to choose rental

Sustainability

Renting cleaning machine contributes positively on a social and environmental level because it allows more companies to enjoy the same equipment instead of purchasing each one of them. In addition, Tennant is subscribed to international standards for environmental management systems (ISO 14001 Environmental Certificate) and (ISO 9001 Quality Certificate).

Cleaning machines for any application

Tennant offers complete cleaning solutions to cover all their clients' needs including:

Cleaning of commercial facilities

Support for existing teams

Cleaning of establishments open to the public

Cleaning after events

Launch of new projects

Seasonal cleaning

Most frequently rented Tennant equipment:

Scrubbers

- Pedestrian scrubbers feature compact designs that allow you to easily reach tight and hard-to-reach spaces.
- Ride-on scrubbers cover large areas and provide optimal floor drying.

Sweepers

- Ride-on sweepers are ideal for high-performance sweeping on indoor and outdoor surfaces.
- Walk-behind sweepers are ideal for picking up debris in indoor and outdoor applications.

Tennant UK

Showroom at Gladstone Road, Northampton, NN5 7PP

www.tennant.co.uk

sales.uk@tennantco.com

01604 583191